Subject: Family of Parishes

Your Excellency,
For over 110 years St. George, now known as Divine Providence Lithuanian Catholic Church, has faithfully focused on its unique mission: We of the Divine Providence Lithuanian Parish strive to be an open, welcoming and caring Catholic community of believers who are called to share, renew and grow in our faith, love of God and one another.
Because we are an ethnic parish, we strive to preserve our Lithuanian heritage by promoting the use of the Lithuanian language in the church liturgy and supporting Lithuanian cultural, educational and social activities in the adjacent Cultural Center. We embrace Jesus by following his teachings, values and examples, and put our faith into action through service and outreach to those in need.
We are grateful to you, all of the bishops of the Archdiocese of Detroit (AOD) whom you have succeeded, and the bishops of Lithuania for pastoral support and guidance in fulfilling our unique mission.
At Divine Providence Parish we serve our Lithuanian Catholic community in the Lithuanian language not only because we cherish our heritage, but also because of the influx of new immigrants from Lithuania since 1990, when Lithuania reestablished its independence from the oppression of Communism and the Soviet Union. After enduring almost 50 years of atheistic indoctrination and poor economic conditions, many young people sought refuge in the pursuit of the “American dream.” To those newly arrived we serve as a beacon of hope and provide a sense of “home.” We strive to evangelize these young families by bringing Christ’s teachings to life in the language they are most familiar. Presently, from this new group of parishioners, we have new cantors, lectors, members of parish bible study groups and pilgrimage groups.
Besides being sensitive to the needs of our community of faith, we have ties to Lithuanian organizations which foster our heritage and make our community more vibrant. Most recently, during the pandemic, we have continued to fulfill our mission by reaching out to Lithuanian Catholics through social media: livestreaming Sunday Masses along with hymns, which are viewed by thousands of visitors weekly.

Through our endless efforts and generous monetary donations, we are fortunate to have a facility, which allows us to promote and support various Lithuanian cultural, education and athletic activities, especially those related to the young. Our vibrant Saturday Lithuanian language school for 60 children is an appropriate setting for religious education and preparation for the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation. Other Catholic youth organizations and their activities promote our primary mission by providing a rich environment for character development and faith formation.
As you can see, our parish continues to be vital and unique. We kindly ask that you consider Divine Providence Lithuanian Church being better served by not being clustered with other parishes for the following reasons:

1. Lithuania’s Bishops Conference continues to enthusiastically support our mission by providing our parish a priest with language and administrative skills, alleviating the AOD effort to solve the shortage of priests problem.
2. Divine Providence has always been fiscally well-managed to ensure that it poses no financial burden to the AOD.
3. Despite our focus on Lithuanian families, Divine Providence has always understood the importance of belonging to a larger faith community. To that end, Divine Providence has always supported all AOD initiatives, both in the areas of evangelization and financial stability. As examples of previous participation, we can cite the following: The Parish Strategic Plan initiative, formation of an Evangelization Commission and a Financial Council, Together in Faith campaign, incorporation of the parish as a separate entity, as well as the yearly CSA drives. We will continue to gladly cooperate in the future.
4. Divine Providence continues to have the unique challenge of new Lithuanian immigrant evangelization. This can only be achieved by use of the Lithuanian language.

We value how conciliatory AOD is to Spanish speaking Catholics. We would kindly appreciate the same consideration. We are including several historical documents signed by previous AOD bishops allowing Divine Providence Parish to continue being a stand-alone ethnic parish.
We look forward to your thoughts and feedback, so that we know you have had an opportunity to prayerfully consider our request. As always, we hope to work together to resolve the current Family of Parishes issue.
